A TRIPLE TRAGEDY

Double Murder and Suicide In a New York Law Office.

A DESPERATE DEBTOR

William C. Turner, Charged As a Defaulter Kills Two Partners and Himself.

Met For Consultation Regarding a Settlement and Bloody Scene Followed.

New York, Oct. 18.—Using a new automatic magazine pistol, William C. Turner, former president and treasurer of the Climax Bottling company, yesterday shot and killed William J. Mallard, secretary and treasurer of the company, and Robert Hamilton, its president, and then killed himself with the same weapon. A second revolver, loaded in every chamber, was found in Turner's pocket, and it is believed he planned to take more lives than he did. The shooting was caused by a quarrel between the three men over an alleged shortage in Turner's accounts, for which he was threatened with criminal prosecution. The tragedy occurred in the offices of the law firm of Cantor, Adams & McIntyre, in the heart of the Wall street district during the busy noon hour. Turner, who was forty-five years old and lived at Mount Vernon, N. Y., a suburb of this city, was a cousin of Governor Odell of this state, and the head of the law firm in whose offices the shooting occurred is President Cantor of the borough of Manhattan.

Soon after the shots rang out in the office building a wild rumor was started that the borough president had been killed. All of the principals in the tragedy were married. Mallard was thirty-six years old, a native of Atlanta, Ga., where he was well known in business and social circles. He was president of the Young Men's Democratic club there. He had been in this city about four years and lived with his wife and two children in an uptown flat. Mr. Hamilton lived in Pittsburg, where he was president of the J. T. & A. Hamilton glass factories. He was about sixty years old. He arrived in this city yesterday in response to a telegram from Turner received at Pittsburg, which said: "Meet me in New York Friday and I will settle with you."

The three men met in the law offices by appointment to allow Turner to make a partial settlement, and he was asked for a certified check. "I have it," he said, and then he closed the door of the room. An instant later he drew a revolver and began firing. Mallard fell shot through the heart, and Hamilton lived only a few moments. A number of other persons who were in the room, clerks and members of the firm, fled in a panic. After killing Hamilton and Mallard, Turner shot himself in the head. Some moments later, hearing no more shots, the persons who fled returned to the room and found the three bodies.

Turner retired as president of the Climax Bottling company last April, when he was bought out by Hamilton. After the sale it was discovered, in examining the books of the concern, that there was a shortage of $5,100 in Turner's accounts. The Climax company engaged counsel to effect a settlement with Turner. Some difficulty had been met with in the negotiations which followed between the lawyers, but it was finally agreed to accept $2,700 and give Turner a release in full. Thursday night it was agreed that the settlement should take place in the offices of Cantor, Adams & McIntyre yesterday.

On Turner's corpse the coroner also found a certified check for $2,700. The latter is regarded as throwing a peculiar light on the case, for it is thought to indicate that Turner went to the offices with the probable intention of paying the sum of money which he had settled the difficulty. If he did intend to pay, it is argued, he changed his mind suddenly and decided to kill.

Gonaives Capitulates.

Port Au Prince, Hayti, Oct. 18.—The foreign consuls at Gonaives (the headquarters of the revolutionists) after negotiating with General Nord, commander of the government forces, have brought about the capitulation of that town. M. Firmin, the revolutionary leader, left Oct. 15 for Mathew Town, Inagua Island, Bahama, on board the steamer Adirondack of the Hamburg-American line. He was accompanied by about 200 of his followers.

Head-On Collision.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 18.—In a head-on collision between the Creaton branch passenger train and a south-bound freight train on the Burlington road four miles north of this city yesterday, ten persons were injured, three of them seriously.

Molieux Trial.

New York, Oct. 18.—A new panel of 150 talesmen has been called to secure the one man required to complete the jury for the trial of Roland B. Molieux. The case went over till Monday morning.

DESPERATE STRAITS

Serious Reports Coming In of Democratic Methods.

Indianapolis, Oct. 18.—Warren Bigler of Wabash, former secretary of the Republican state committee and generally known as one of the most conservative members of the organization, is confident that the Republicans are going to win another big victory in Indiana this year. The outlook in his opinion is very bright. Bigler is a member of the executive committee and has been at headquarters for several days assisting Chairman Goodrich and Secretary Whitaker. He is therefore in close touch. Other officials of the state committee take an optimistic view of the situation, but no figures will be given out until next week. The callers, and they are growing more numerous every day, all bring encouraging reports. If the Republicans get out their vote there will be no doubt but that another victory will be won, but the party workers are being impressed with the necessity of hard work election day. The Democrats are not making a vigorous fight, but they are holding on with old-time tenacity. The reports that they are buying votes in close counties and taking receipts so that men may be disfranchised election day if they attempt to break faith, continue to come in. The officials of the organization think they have prima facie evidence that this scheme is being worked in a number of counties. In one county it is said that the Democrats have already purchased over 300 men in this way. The officials of the Republican state committee says that this is but one indication of the desperate straits in which the Democrats find themselves and what they are resorting to to keep a little of their old-time prestige.

A report is going the rounds here that John W. Gates, the Chicago millionaire, whose dealings in stocks and grain have recently attracted such wide attention, is prompting a combination of the coal mining properties of Indiana. This is not confirmed, but many who have heard the rumor say it would not be beyond Gates. The largest mines it is understood are to be included. Efforts have been made for two years to organize a trust of the mining properties, and John W. Bays of Sullivan, representing Eastern men, secured options twice. The combination was to include the mines of Illinois, but it fell through because a majority of the operators, it is said, wanted more for their properties than the underwriters thought they were worth. But this combination was talked of at a time when the operators were getting a small price for their coal. Now when it is way up it is not likely that they would enter into a combination so readily.

Harry Mount, one of the best known producers of the Indiana oil field, has just returned from Texas, where he has been prospecting for the last year. He is not so enthusiastic about the Texas field, although he admits there are great prospects for the state. He says that the wells on Spindle Top, the famous hill near Beaumont, that produced 60,000 barrels a day when first opened, have dwindled down to 1,000 and 800 as a rule, and they have to be pumped. Originally they flowed so that the oil could not be checked and an immense fortune was wasted. But a few miles from Beaumont there is another field, he says, where some great wells are being opened. Most of the oil is good only for fuel, but even it sold for $1 a barrel. Mount says there is a sufficient demand for 100,000 barrels a day in the South alone, so there will always be a ready market. He thinks better of the Indiana field, however, and is preparing to try his luck in it again.

The postal authorities are hot on the trail of the young men who think it is a good joke to molest free rural mail route boxes. Some time ago a young man in Randolph county broke into one of these boxes and was indicted by the federal grand jury. His attorney, when the case came before Judge Baker, pleaded that his client could not be held, as the postal laws did not mention free rural mail boxes. But the judge took a different view and established a precedent so that there is no mistaking the law. Postoffice Inspector Fletcher is apprehensive lest the festive celebrators of Halloween may take it into their heads to molest rural mail boxes. He wishes it to be known ahead that whoever is convicted of molesting the boxes is subject to a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment for three years.

Poisoned Coffee.

Youngstown, Ohio, Oct. 18.—Mrs. Mary Joseph died yesterday afternoon after drinking poisoned coffee. Three other members of the family are in a serious condition. Nicholas Joseph, who is no relation of the family, has been arrested, charged with the crime. The family had been living in the house of Nicholas Joseph until Thursday, when they decided to move. It is said Joseph was seen prowling about the cupboard.

Two Fatally Burned.

Urbana, Ohio, Oct. 18.—The Tucker wood rim factory in Urbana was entirely destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss, $70,000. Charles Maggort, son of the watchman, was burned to death. Another son, Carl Maggort, was seriously burned and may die.

Workman's Fatal Fall.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 18.—George McFarland, foreman of a construction gang at work on the Brown street bridge, fell from a cross-beam of the structure sixty feet above the ground yesterday and was fatally hurt.

WANT TO RESUME WORK

Locals In Strike District Electing Delegates to Send to the Important Convention.

President Mitchell Will Make a Plea For Acceptance of Arbitration.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 18.—In accordance with the call issued Thursday by order of the executive boards of the anthracite districts of the miners' union, all "locals" throughout the coal field began electing delegates yesterday to the convention which will be held here next Monday to consider the acceptance or rejection of the arbitration plans submitted by President Roosevelt. Most of the local unions held their meetings last night. They all will have been held by tonight. It is practically certain that a majority of the delegates will come to the convention instructed to vote in favor of accepting the arbitration scheme. The prominent officials of the union say there is no fear that the opposition will be strong enough to defeat the efforts of those who favor ending the strike by arbitrating their differences with the operators. President Mitchell does not care to anticipate the action of the convention, but from his manner it is taken that he has not the slightest doubt as to the result. He will go into the convention and make a strong speech for the acceptance of the arbitration scheme. The indications are that the convention will last two days and that there will be much debate on various features of the arbitration plan. The conditions at some collieries are different from those existing at other places. The principal question to be discussed before the plan is accepted by the miners will be that of taking care of all the men. The conditions of the mines are such that all workmen cannot be given work immediately, and some will have to wait for weeks before the companies can take care of them. The operators will not dismiss the non-union men in order to give employment to returning strikers. It is understood the union will take care of all such men who fail to find immediate employment. This will be done by drawing funds from the relief fund, which is said to be still growing. It is estimated that 25 per cent of the collieries will be in operation on the first day after the suspension is over. The railroads are making every effort to have enough cars on hand to carry the freshly mined coal to market and are sending thousands of cars into the regions, placing them on sidings at the collieries.

WARM PRAISE

London Authority Has Good Words For Roosevelt.

London, Oct. 18.—The Spectator, commenting upon the termination of the coal strike in the United States, says: "President Roosevelt has still further raised himself in the estimation of his fellow countrymen as a man of action and also as a man of moderation. They feel that somehow he will find a way to curb the excesses of the great monopolies without falling into the dangers of socialistic interference with commercial liberty. The American people clearly are going to trust President Roosevelt as they trusted Washington and Lincoln, and their trust will not be misplaced."

EXCELLENT CONDITIONS

Barring Fuel Shortage All Is Well, Says Post-Office.

New York, Oct. 18.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: With the settlement of the great coal strike of 1902 the most remarkable in some respects of modern record, practically the only unfavorable feature in general trade and industry disappears. Coincident with this also have been the ending of several minor troubles of a similar nature. While relief to the public mind is, perhaps, the most immediate result, it is natural to expect that present abnormal prices and conditions in fuel supply will gradually disappear. Some scars of the costly trouble will no doubt be reflected in some permanent loss of trade in the mining regions and in rather higher prices for fuel the coming winter than was paid a year ago. All other trade developments this week are largely favorable. Retail trade has generally improved, stimulated at the West, Northwest and South by cooler weather, fall festivals and carnivals. Jobbing demand is also better, particularly at the West. Dry goods, shoe, hat and cap, clothing, hardware and lumber dealers have all done well.

None Fatally Hurt.

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Oct. 18.—As the regular evening train on the Southern Railway was coming from Bergen last evening, the rear car in some way left the track at Jackson, a flag station and turned completely over, injuring every person on the car except two, none fatally, however.

TAKES HER OWN LIFE

In Fear of Sentence Ida Craddock Inhales Gas.

New York, Oct. 18.—In fear of another term in prison or spending the balance of her days in an insane asylum, Miss Ida Craddock, high priestess and pastor of the "Church of the Yoga" in Chicago and missionary here of her peculiar belief, committed suicide yesterday by inhaling gas. Her body was found by her mother, Mrs. Decker, by whom the suicide was to have been accompanied to the United States court to be sentenced under a conviction for sending obscene matter through the mails.

Fear of this sentence and also that her mother was planning to have her committed to an asylum led to the suicide. She left a most affectionate letter to her mother, in which she said: "I will not consent to go to the asylum, as you are evidently planning to have me go."

Miss Craddock served three months on Blackwell's Island for circulating an objectionable book, and upon her release was prosecuted by the federal authorities for sending the books through the mails. Before coming here she was convicted in Chicago and prosecuted in Philadelphia and Washington for circulating her books, which were alleged by the authorities to be indecent. Miss Craddock came originally from Denver, and first drew public attention by her defense of the dance du ventre at the World's Fair, which she maintained was a solemn religious performance. She was a woman of culture.

ALL WANT HIM

Dr. Lorenz In Demand From Many Quarters.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Dr. Adolph Lorenz will leave Chicago for Salt Lake City and San Francisco next week. His achievements in this city have brought him a great number of requests from all parts of the United States, and he has accepted a case in Salt Lake City. Dr. Lorenz performed twenty operations yesterday, all of them being pronounced successful. All were performed free of charge as far as the physician was concerned, the parents of the children paying a small sum to the hospital where the operation was performed.

Charge Against Soldier.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 18.—George Burrus, a private in the army and stationed at Fort McPherson, was arrested here yesterday, charged with being an accomplice in the murder of the Meeks family in Sullivan county, Mo., two years ago. It is claimed that Burrus is one of the two Taylor brothers who were sentenced for the murder of old man Meeks, his wife and three children, and who later escaped. William Taylor was afterward caught and hanged, but George was never recaptured. Authorities of Sullivan county have been notified of Burrus' arrest.

Pendomo In Control.

Panama, Colombia, Oct. 18.—General Perdomo has notified the foreign consuls here that he had assumed the functions of supreme commander of Colombian forces on the isthmus, as well as those of the minister of state.

Nacogdoches, Tex., Oct. 18.—Jim Buchanan, colored, the murderer of the Hicks family, was tried here yesterday, a plea of guilty was accepted by the judge, and the negro was legally hanged within two hours after sentence had been passed. Buchanan was brought to Nacogdoches under the protection of five companies of militia. Upon his arrival here the negro was immediately turned over to Sheriff Spradley, who told the people that he would be given a speedy trial. Court was at once convened, a jury was impaneled without delay and the negro's plea of guilty was accepted by the court. The judge ordered that the death sentence be executed Nov. 17, but many announced that they would have no delay. Buchanan then waived the thirty days allowed him by law and was hanged by Sheriff Spradley in the jailyard in the presence of a large crowd.

WORN TO A SHADOW.

When there is a falling off in flesh in woman or man there is "something wrong." And that something wrong is generally a loss of nutrition due to disease of the stomach and the other organs of digestion. Sometimes this loss of flesh is accompanied by a loss of appetite, but in many cases the appetite does not fail and there may be a constant desire to eat. Languor, nervousness, irritability, sleeplessness, are symptoms often associated with this loss of nutrition and falling off in flesh.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food so that lost flesh is regained and the physical health re-established.

"I had suffered from indigestion and only those who have suffered from it know what it really is," writes Mrs. M. J. Fagan, of 1613 East Genesee st., Syracuse, N. Y. "I had had severe attacks of headache and dizziness, with cold hands and feet; everything I ate distressed me, bowels were constipated and I was growing very thin and nervous. I cannot half express the bad feelings I had when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took nine bottles of the 'Discovery' and have taken several bottles of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I commenced feeling better with the first bottle and kept on improving. Now I am so greatly improved in health my friends often speak of it. I most heartily recommend these medicines to all suffering as I was."

Farewell Reception.

Last night, a very kindly and cordial farewell reception was given to the Rev. J. T. Charlton, retiring pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and his amiable and good wife, at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kessler. All the pastors of the other protestant congregations here with members of their families were present, and the rooms were crowded with these and very many other good people of Seymour.

The function was entirely informal and all its incidents were pleasant. Altogether, a goodly gathering of folks moved by the spirit of Him who said, "A new commandment I give unto you," and dwelling together after the social ideal of the Psalmist. Incidentally, there was good music, a fine recitation, and refreshment in the way of doughnuts and coffee "just like mother used to make."

CROTHERSVILLE STOCK PENS.

Supreme Court Decides That They are a Public Nuisance.

The stock pens in Crothersville maintained by the P., C., C. & St. L. railroad, will probably have to go because they are a public nuisance. The decision of the Supreme court, Friday, in an opinion written by Judge Monks, in a case of the railroad against the town, is a victory in the fight for more sanitary conditions.

The town trustees, which constitute the Board of Health, adopted a resolution declaring the stock pens a public nuisance and the State Board of Health, in November, 1900, approved the resolution.

The town through the city marshal was taking steps to remove the pens when the railroad brought suit for an injunction. The Jackson Circuit Court denied the injunction and the Supreme Court affirms the lower court.

The Supreme Court holds that the burden was on the railroad to prove that the stock pens were not a public nuisance, and that "to grant appellant (the railroad) the relief prayed for under the facts found would be to aid it in maintaining a public nuisance, a crime under the laws of the State."

The railroad argued that the board of trustees had no authority to pass the order because there was a vacancy on the board. The Supreme Court does not decide that question, but holds that the railroad was not entitled to an injunction for "he who comes into equity must come with clean hands."

The railroad has maintained the pens more than thirty-five years, but the town has built up around them. The action of the trial court in refusing to let the railroad prove that there were stinking hog pens in the town near the stock pens is approved by the Supreme Court.

The lawyers in the case were O. H. Montgomery of Seymour, and J. A. Cox, of Crothersville, for the town, and the late Col. Simon Stansifer, of Columbus, for the railroad.
